REPUTATION LEVERAGE

A mechanism that makes scamming unprofitable

$500,000+

already recovered for community members

15%

fee — charged only on a successful recovery

HOW IT WORKS

- 1 A member gets scammed — by a brand, a network or an employer
- 2 They bring proof to a private chat: screenshots, logs, correspondence
- 3 The community applies media and reputation pressure
- 4 The debtor pays — a 15% fee on the recovery. If they don't, the claimant loses nothing

One public case in the right chat can cost a brand millions in lost traffic. That's why brands pay.

How Platinum spots are allocated

To avoid any misunderstanding — the rules are dead simple

Casino

Sportsbook / betting

Payment systems (PSP)

CPA networks

Recruiting agencies

Media-buying teams

THE RULE

The first brand takes the vertical at the starting Platinum price. If two or more contenders apply, a sealed-bid auction starts: offers go personally to the founder, competitors' bids are never disclosed. The highest offer wins the spot.

Exclusivity applies to Platinum only. Silver and Gold allow any number of brands per vertical.

Sponsor privileges

Administrator status

Sponsors are made chat admins (Gold and above).

Official Rep section

The brand is added to the dedicated official rep section.

Named staff tags

1 brand admin account + unlimited named tags for staff (without admin rights).

Standing out from competitors

Regular users are hidden in the member list — only sponsor brands are visible.

Verification badge

The official ✓ Official REP★ badge is assigned.

✓ Official REP★

Sponsor status is an automatic marker of brand reliability for the entire community audience.

Value and strategic ROI

Visibility and status

Your brand stays in front of the entire gaming industry — from the CIS to the global market.

Client trust

The Gambling Court has already recovered $500K+ — sponsor status reads as a reliability marker.

Organic hiring and sales

One large B2B contract or one strong team lead pays the sponsorship back for years ahead.

€8–55K

a booth for 3–4 days

FOR COMPARISON

One booth at an industry conference (SBC / ICE / SiGMA) buys you 3–4 days a year. GURO sponsorship keeps you in front of the same audience 365 days a year.
